KEEPING LIVINGSTON COUNTY AT THE TOP

Because we believe the growth of Livingston County should be managed with the greatest level of resources we hope you will make a three year commitment. We are excited that you will invest in the Economic Development Council of Livingston County in the pursuit of expanding the services provided to current and future members of the business community.

Your investment allows us to continue the services our community has come to expect. Contributions in excess of the minimum will allow us to implement additional services that will make Livingston County one of the premier locations in the country to live and do business.

Please make checks payable to: Economic Development Council of Livingston County.

We are a 501(c)3 non-profit organization. For Federal tax purposes, contributions to this organization can be tax deductible. Please consult your tax advisor.
